EnvironMolds is renowned for excellent life casting or body casting. Professionals, here, have expertise in the art of crafting duplicate molds from the human body. Also, we provide demonstrations to those who wish to learn the technique. In our official website, you may find distinct video-illustrations on the concerned subject. Our life casting kit supply is bigger than any other existing brands. We offer latest products in the finest quality possible with a handy guide on the right usage of products. You may learn about all other life casting details in the dedicated website.
