There is no force more powerful or defining when faced with a family crisis, the loss of a loved one, or the decline of a business than the law. This is what Beverly Hills-based family law attorney Tamara Shari Benefield believes in with all her heart and it is what led her to open Tamara Benefield Law Offices in August of 2004.

Originally located in Rancho Palos Verdes, Benefield Law expanded to Beverly Hills in 2005 and has been offering family law, divorce, child custody, child support, and prenup services to those in the area since. Tamara understands that family law is a complicated business that requires extensive knowledge of many areas of the law. To practice family law, you have to be prepared to deal with issues ranging from drafting prenuptial and postnuptial agreements, dealing with charges of domestic abuse, understanding how to obtain a restraining order to protect families, setting up trusts to ensure assets are protected for the next generation, or even deal with the challenge of a parental kidnapping case.
